

CAMO Drug and Alcohol Policy

This policy is in place to ensure the safety of all participants.

To be eligible for a Challenge Aspen Military Opportunities (CAMO) retreat, a potential participant must read, understand and initial each line in the space provided.

- 1) Challenge Aspen does not condone the use of any mind or body performance altering substances, whether legal or illegal. _____
- 2) Accepting an invitation to participate in a CAMO retreat means you understand and respect the Challenge Aspen mission of teaching veterans with disabilities adaptive techniques that encourage mind/body wellness through holistic practices and physical fitness. _____
- 3) By accepting an invitation to participate in a CAMO retreat, you confirm you continue all doctor prescribed medication regimens. _____
- 4) Marijuana and alcohol are legal in the state of Colorado and therefore, we, as an organization cannot deny access to either. If you choose to partake in consuming either alcohol or marijuana, we simply ask the following:
 - a) You DO NOT use alcohol or marijuana in excess as defined by Colorado law. _____
 - b) You WILL NOT use alcohol or marijuana during any CAMO group activities. _____
 - c) You WILL NOT let your usage affect other participants. _____
 - d) You WILL NOT let your usage affect your physical performance or participation in daily activities. _____
 - e) You WILL adhere to Colorado law regarding marijuana usage, possession and transport. _____
 - f) You WILL adhere to the lodging rules regarding marijuana. _____

Consequences for breaking these rules: (Enforcement and remedies are at the sole discretion of the CAMO director, Challenge Aspen Director of Operations and the Chief Executive Officer.)

- 1) You may be removed from the activity.
- 2) You may be disallowed from any further group activities until departure time.
- 3) You may be taken to Aspen Valley Hospital Emergency Room for evaluation.
- 4) You may be taken to the Aspen detoxification center.
- 5) You may be asked to remove yourself from the Challenge Aspen lodging unit.
- 6) You may be asked to pay for your own transportation back home from the Aspen airport.
- 7) You may be prohibited from future CAMO programs.

I, (printed name) _____ (signature) _____, have read and understand the Challenge Aspen Military Opportunities (CAMO) drug and alcohol policy as stated and I declare I will abide by the policy.

Date: _____